2. Advisory Fees

2.1 Clients will pay an advisory fee (the “Advisory Fee”) charged monthly in arrears based on the below tiered fee structure of total amount of assets under management (“AUM”) held in the client account and computed based on the Net Liquidation Value (“NLV”) of the account applied daily on a 252 business days basis. The Net Liquidation Value of the account for any given day is equal to the ending equity value of the account on that day. Our tiered fee structure is as follows

- For the first $100,000, the client pays a maximum annual fee of 1.85% of the account’s Net Liquidation Value,
- Then, from $100,001 to $200,000, the client pays a maximum annual fee of 1.75% of the account’s Net Liquidation Value,
- Then, from $200,001 to $300,000, the client pays a maximum annual fee of 1.50% of the account’s Net Liquidation Value,

- Then, from $300,001 to $1,000,000, the client pays a maximum annual fee of 1.25% of the account's Net Liquidation Value,
- And then, from $1,000,001 and up, the client pays a maximum annual fee of 1.00% of the account's Net Liquidation Value.

2.2 Client hereby agrees to instruct the custodian to debit all advisory fees directly from the account and to pay such advisory fee to Sub-Adviser which, in turn, will share a portion of the fee collected to Banorte Asset Management. The fees for each calendar month shall be due and payable in arrears no later than the tenth business day of the immediately following calendar month. Schedule of Fees may be amended from time to time by Banorte Asset Management upon thirty (30) days written notice to the Client.

2.3 When services provided are for less than one calendar month, the fee will be prorated and the client shall pay any outstanding aggregate daily fees for the period from the day immediately following the last day of the last calendar month for which the client has paid, through the effective date of such withdrawal or termination, as of such effective date. Monthly advisory fees debits will appear on Client's account statements. Advisory fees will be payable, first, from free credit balances, if any, in the account, and second, from the liquidation or withdrawal by instruction of the Sub-Adviser to the custodian of client's share of money market funds, or balances in any money market account. This Agreement shall serve as authorization for such liquidation or withdrawal. In the event, that such free credit balances or money market assets are insufficient to satisfy payment of these advisory fees, Client agrees that Sub-Adviser may instruct the custodian to liquidate Account assets to satisfy the deficit. Client expressly acknowledges that Sub-Adviser has the right to make these liquidations.

2.4 Banorte Asset Management reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce or waive the Advisory Fee for certain Client Accounts for any period of time determined by Banorte Asset Management. In addition, Client agrees that Banorte Asset Management may waive its fees for the Accounts of Clients other than Client, without notice to Client and without waiving its fees for Client.

a bar to the arbitration by applying to any court of competent jurisdiction. Client expressly agrees that any issues relating to the application of a statute of limitations or other time bar are referable to such a court.
